

HOW TO GROW A GARDEN REFERENCES:

Books:

Growing Fruits and Vegetables Organically, a Rodale Garden Book, 1994.
The Complete Guild to a Great-tasting, More Bountiful, Problem-Free Harvest

The Resilient Gardener, Carol Deppe, 2010
Food Production and Self-reliance in Uncertain Times

The New Organic Grower, Eliot Coleman, 1995
A Master's Manual of Tools and Techniques for the Home and Market Gardener

Gaia's Garden, Toby Hemenway, 2009
A Guide of Home-Scale Permaculture

The Holistic Orchard, Michael Phillips, 2011
Tree Fruits and Berries the Biological Way

The New Seed-Starters Handbook. by Nancy Bubel, 1988
Starting Seeds Indoors, Moving Plants Outdoors, Saving Seeds

The Back Garden Seed Saving, by Sue Stickland
Keeping our Vegetable Heritage Alive

Weeds of the Northeast, by Richard H. Uva, Joseph C. Neal and Joseph M. DiTomaso
Identification of Common Weeds and Weed Management in the Northeast

The Secret Life of Plants, Peter Tompkins and Christopher Bird, 2002
A fascinating account of the physical, emotional, and spiritual relations between plants and man

Secrets of the Soil, Peter Tompkins and Christopher Bird, 1998
New Solutions for Restoring our Planet

Catalogues:

Fedco, Waterville, Maine
A folksy co-op with tons of information and no fancy photos since 1978

Johnny's Selected Seeds, Winslow, Maine
An employee-owned company serving growers since 1973

High Mowing Organic Seeds, Wolcott, Vermont
100%certified organic, non-GMO verified seeds since 1996

Prairie Moon Nursery, Winona, Minnesota
Exclusively selling North American native plants for over 30 years

Online:

Soil Testing Laboratory, UMass Extension
soiltest.umass.edu/fact-sheets/sampling-instructions-routine-soil-analysis

NOFA Northeast Organic Farming Organization
411 Sheldon Rd., Barre, MA 01005
www.nofa.org