Lunchtime Learning Series: Preserving Family Treasures

FRIDAY JUNE 2, 12PM | MAIN LIBRARY, COSTIN ROOM AND YOUTUBE LIVE

Join us for a special talk where Anna Tucker, Executive Director of the Framingham History Center, will explore the art and science of preserving and protecting the irreplaceable artifacts of your family's history. The talk will include practical tips for properly storing and handling these objects and explore the importance of preserving the stories and memories that accompany these items. Whether you're an amateur historian, a collector, or simply someone who wants to explore how to care for the history in your care, this event is for you!

The Bob Dodd Sunday Concert at FPL
