Binti by Nnedi Okorafor

Wednesday July 10, 7-8pm – Main Library, Trustees Room

Binti is the first of the Himba people ever to be offered a place at Oomza University, the finest institution of higher learning in the galaxy. But to accept the offer exacts a high price: Binti must give up her place in her family to make her way in a world that has long been at war with the Meduse, a nightmarish alien race.

MCAULIFFE BRANCH

Defending Jacob by William Landay

Thursday July 18, 10-11am – McAuliffe Branch, Community Room

A 14-year-old boy has been murdered and suspicion falls upon the victim's classmate, Jacob Barber. While Jacob's father Andy, a prominent district attorney, is fiercely determined to prove his son's innocence, Jacob's mother is besieged by growing doubts. Evidence mounts against Jacob, and an old family secret comes to light, threatening to further unravel Andy's defense of his son and the integrity of the Barber family. This is the book that inspired the TV series Defending Jacob, an episode of which was recently filmed in Framingham!
