Privacy & Security Resources
framinghamlibrary.org/tech

Passwords

- www.passwordrandom.com - Can help you generate complex passwords out of numbers, letters symbols, and even help you create pronounceable passwords
- http://rumkin.com/tools/password/passchk.php - Find out how strong your passwords are and what kind of effort it might take someone to guess them
- http://world.std.com/~reinhold/diceware.html - This is a guide to creating Diceware passwords which are easy to remember, but hard to guess
- https://haveibeenpwned.com - Enter your email address and/or password to see if any of your accounts have been compromised
- https://www.turnon2fa.com - This site will show you how to turn on 2 factor authentication for sites that offer it.

Web Browsing

- https://www.eff.org/https-everywhere - Browser extension for more secure browsing using encryption
- https://www.eff.org/privacybadger - Browser extension for blocking spying ads and invisible trackers.
- https://www.ublock.org/ or https://adblockplus.org/ - Blocks ads from tracking you/interfering with your browsing experience.

Email

- https://www.guerrillamail.com/ - A temporary email address for one time signups.
- https://kb.iu.edu/d/arsf - More information on phishing attacks and how to avoid them.

Google & Facebook

- https://myactivity.google.com - See what information Google keeps on your activity.
- https://www.google.com/maps/timeline - If you have location history on and are using a smartphone, Google will show you everywhere you've been.
- https://adssettings.google.com - See what kinds of topics Google thinks you like and manage your ad settings.
- https://takeout.google.com - Download your data from Google.
- https://www.techlicious.com/tip/complete-guide-to-facebook-privacy-settings/ - This guide walks you through updating your Facebook privacy and security settings.

Other Links

- https://ssd.eff.org/ - Guides and more information for keeping yourself safe and secure online.
- https://www.zdnet.com/article/simple-security-step-by-step-guide/ - Tips for protecting your privacy from hackers and spies.