

Tutoring with Videos

Most are free; many will require you to set-up an account. For some sites, an ID and/or Password is Available from Literacy Unlimited Office.

 Recommended places to start.

*Rachel's English www.youtube.com/user/rachelsenglish Rachel's English has videos on vocabulary, pronunciation, idioms, and learning English with movies. The pronunciation section digs down into individual vowel sounds. The "learn English with movies" videos pull scenes from movies to see how Americans use English.

ESL Video <https://www.eslvideo.com> Videos with transcripts and quizzes grouped by level.

News in Levels <https://www.newsinlevels.com/> Videos in six different levels.

Short videos with lesson plans Short Films for ELT students

Ted Talks For example:

Underwater Astonishments:

https://www.ted.com/talks/david_gallo_underwater_astonishments

YouTube For example:

Crooks are everywhere (really funny, no audio)

https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=Lq9bVlt_BJ4

When to use ON, IN and AT correctly in English | prepositions of place | part 2

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=AulzPgb3vvo&t=161s>