

Websites with News and Current Events

Most are free; many will require you to set-up an account. For some sites, an ID and/or Password is Available from Literacy Unlimited Office.

* Recommended places to start.

*News for You NewsForYouOnline Reading and listening activities, current events, teacher's guides included for some articles.

Password: available for Literacy Unlimited tutors only – contact the office

*Newsela newsela.com Good for reading practice and to change the number of text words - has current news and stories.

Password: available for Literacy Unlimited tutors only – contact the office

*News in Levels newsinlevels.com Text and videos of short news stories in three different levels.

Engoo <https://engoo.com/app/materials/en> Engoo has beginner through advanced lessons in conversation, grammar, and vocabulary, as well as, describing pictures, speaking tests and Daily news. The Daily News section has intermediate to advanced articles with vocabulary, comprehension and discussion questions. The site is free, no signup necessary.

Good News Network goodnewsnetwork.org Good stories about positive things, also has listening.

Voice of America <https://learningenglish.voanews.com/> Beginner through advanced lessons. Reading passages with videos and a quiz section.

Breaking News English www.breakingnewsenglish.com Almost 3000 free leveled readers (0-6) with mini lessons.