

LVM Literacy Unlimited

Karen Boudreau, Tim Hamilton,
Rose Lawrence, and Luz Rodriguez

are pleased to announce a

Tutor/Student Discussion Group

Each week, there will be informal discussions about anything to do with the American English language and American culture.

There is no formal curriculum — you can attend when it works for you or when you have a specific question or observation. Previous discussions were fun, interesting, and included practical applications for both tutors and students.

The workshop will meet Fridays from 1:00 pm to 3:00 pm, starting April 5 in the Literacy Center ESL Classroom. It will also meet once a month on the first Saturday of the month from 11:00 am to 1:00 pm starting May 4th in the Literacy Conference Room.
