Main Library Book Club

Our Souls at Night

by Kent Haruf

Tuesday December 1,
7:00pm –

See page 5 for location

The final novel for Haruf opens up in the evening with Addie Moore paying a visit to her longtime neighbor, Louis. Both are 70-year-olds, and Addie makes the shocking proposal that they begin sleeping together to talk at night and provide the sleep-easing comfort of physical company. The reader witnesses the pair pass through phases of awkwardness to intimacy and finally to alliance. Led by Library Trustee, Bob Dodd.

Poetry Workshop

Led by Alan Feldman

Tuesdays December 1, 8, 15, 22
and 29, 7:00pm –

See page 5 for location

This drop-in class welcomes serious poets of all ages and levels of experience who would like to participate for one or more sessions. Each session begins with a discussion of a topic in poetry leading to a brief in-class assignment. Poets who wish to have their work discussed need to provide copies to distribute during the session. Alan Feldman is a professor emeritus at Framingham State University. Alan's new collection, Immortality, was awarded the Four Lakes Prize, from the University of Wisconsin Press in 2015.

Maria Altmann, an elderly Jewish refugee, takes on the Austrian government, attempting to recover artwork she believes rightfully belongs to her family. Starring Helen Mirren and Ryan Reynolds.

Amira Acre in Concert

Wednesday December 2, 7:00pm –
See page 5 for location

Pianist Amira Acre performs the works of Liszt and Ravel. Ms. Acre has performed in France, England, Belgium, Italy and several other countries across Europe. Besides performing internationally as a solo artist, Ms. Acre is a distinguished chamber musician and has performed in that role numerous times at Lincoln Center in New York City.

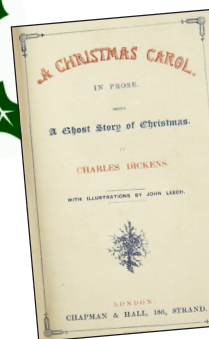

A Christmas Carol: A Dramatic Reading

Wednesday December 16, 7:00pm – See page 5 for location

Performed by: Dr. Helen Heineman, President Emerita, Framingham State University

This reading has become an annual tradition, so don't miss the opportunity to see Charles Dickens' masterpiece come to life! Dickens prepared a special reading version of A Christmas Carol that he used during reading tours in England and America, ending in Boston. Dr. Heineman will perform a dramatized reading of this version, enhancing the story with a slideshow of over 250 slides that depict nearly every illustrated version of the story since it first appeared in 1843!

News from LVM Literacy Unlimited
